FIVE DIE IN CRASH OF U.S. MAIL PLANE ON WAY TO OMAHA

Machine Burst Into Flames When Driven Down by Storm—Woman, Three Men Passengers and Pilot Killed—Farmer's Wife Witnesses Accident—Carried Four Letter Bags

OREGON, Mo., Aug. 31 (AP).—Five persons were killed in the crash of a tri-motor Rapid-Air Transport plane, bound from Kansas City to Omaha, on a road near here tonight. The plane carried a woman and three men as passengers and had one pilot aboard.

Rapid Air Transport officials at Kansas City said the passengers were: Mrs. Maude Schiffmacker, Edwardsville, Kansas; Dallas Leitch, Omaha; W. W. Truelson, Omaha; Frank Mahan, Kansas City. The pilot was C. M. Bontrager, Kansas City.

BURST INTO FLAMES
Mrs. Lewis Kurtz, near whose farm home the plane crashed, said it burst into flames upon striking a road embankment, and it would have been impossible for any of the occupants to have escaped alive.

"My husband and I were awakened by the storm," she said. While they were putting on their nightgowns, they noted the plane. It was flying low, just above the trees, and was circling as if to make a landing, she recounted.

"It had appeared to be going west, then turned north," she continued on page 3, column 6.

BANDITS WRECK ORIENTAL TRAIN

Three Men, One From United States, Reported Kidnapped in Manchuria

PEKING, China, Aug. 31 (AP).—Reports from Harbin, today, that Manchurian bandits, after wrecking the Chinese Eastern Railway train, had kidnapped three men, among them an American citizen, served to emphasize the belief here that banditry continues to be Manchukuo's major problem.

(This dispatches reported the American kidnapped was John Johansen, employee of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Company.)

Chinese Eastern Railway trains operating in this section have been free from attack for some time past.

CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE
Along the Eastern branch between Harbin and Pongranichuwa, however, bandits since January have caused damage estimated by the Manchukuo authorities at 1,000,000 yen (approximately $300,000).

Reports received recently from the northeastern section of Manchukuo indicated that in several regions, notably the eastern parts of Kirin and Pongranichuwa, activities of the bandits are tinged with Communism.

JAPANESE WITHDRAWN
Since April, General Okamura, vice-chief of the staff of the Kwantung Army, told The Associated Press, Japanese detachments stationed in all parts of Manchukuo, except Kirin, have returned to their barracks.

Bandit suppression thus has been left in the hands of the Manchukuo troops except in Kirin, where Japanese continue active campaigning.

REQUIRES FASTER FIGHTING PLANES

Aerial Maneuvres Show That Paris Cannot Be Defended With Present Effectives

PARIS, Aug. 31 (AP).—An invading air fleet will wipe Paris completely off the map unless France gets faster fighting planes, the French air staff believed tonight. Officials said the four days' aerial maneuvers, ending today, showed conclusively that the capital cannot, with present effectives, be defended against air raiders, and emphasized sharply the urgent need for speedier aircraft.

A force of rebuilt pursuit planes failed to match the speed of heavily-loaded bombers, comprising the "attacking fleet," the average speed of which was 140 miles an hour.

Rams and Sinks Spanish Vessel

MALAGA, Spain, Aug. 31 (AP).—Captain G. S. Owen, of the British steamer Carpio, reported today that his ship rammed and sank the Spanish fishing craft Sirena, off Estepona. The crew of the stricken ship, numbering twelve, were rescued shortly before dawn. The captain reported the Sirena was without lights, and that the Carpio lookout did not see her until it was too late to clear.

Mt. Hood Crater Takes Life

Arrow points to crevasse on snow-capped Mount Hood, Oregon, where Victor Van Normann, twenty-three-year-old University of Washington student, plunged to death. Rescue parties, equipped with gas masks, dared death to reach the body 200 feet below the crater rim in the morning.

Unification of Railways Urged By E. W. Beatty

C.P.R. President States at Vancouver Joint Management of Two Lines Would Effect Savings of Millions—Hopes to See Plan Adopted—Continue Cent-a-Mile Excursions

VANCOUVER, Aug. 31 (CP).—"I am very hopeful that unification for the purpose of administration of the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railways will be brought about," President E. W. Beatty, of the Canadian Pacific, said in a statement here tonight.

FRIENDSHIP IS NOT IN DANGER

Britain Fears No Misunderstanding With Japan Over Soviet in League

LONDON, Aug. 31 (AP).—Great Britain does not fear her new advocacy of Russian membership in the League of Nations will endanger her traditional friendship with Japan.

A well qualified interpreter of the Government's policies said tonight the tri-power drive for the Soviet's admission to the league launched by Great Britain, France and Italy "has nothing to do with the far Eastern situation."

OPPOSES ALLIANCES
Britain's determination ever since the Great War to oppose alliances with the European continent dictated her action in taking an aggressive stand for Russia's membership, he explained.

The alternative facing Europe, this source asserted, was an alliance between France and Russia.

Sounding of Horns Banned in England During Late Hours

LONDON, Aug. 31 (CP-Havas).—Night silence was ordered for all England today by the Ministry of Transport following successful experiment with a zone of silence in London.

No horns may be sounded by vehicles between 11:30 p.m. and 7 a.m. in cities and towns and generally, in "built-up" sections of England, the order specified.

ARMISTICE IS PLANNED

Efforts Are Being Made to End Long Warfare in Gran Chaco

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 31 (AP).—A truce in the Chaco war seemed near tonight, after four years of bitter, bloody jungle fighting.

Paraguay had accepted and Bolivia was considering the proposal made by three big friendly nations, Argentina, Brazil and the United States, to cease hostilities while terms for peace are discussed at Buenos Aires.

MANY DIFFICULTIES
Jubilance over Paraguay's willingness to stop fighting was tempered, however, by the countless difficulties standing in the way of any armistice.

Paraguay's best troops, thrust forward along two fronts in their sixth major offensive, have driven far into the territory Bolivia claims as her own—a factor, neutral observers were inclined to believe, in Paraguay's willingness to rest temporarily on her laurels.

Bolivia, on the other hand, was not regarded as likely to favor armistice terms leaving Paraguayan forces too far forward in the territory she claims, especially since the War Office at La Paz today claimed flatly that the enemy's sixth big drive had been smashed.

HOPE FOR PEACE
Nevertheless, workers for peace this evening clung to the hope that Paraguay's acceptance of an armistice would break the long deadlock.

Meanwhile, the dogged fighting in the jungle region went on, with the claims of the two nations conflicting as usual.

To her estimate made yesterday that more than 14,000 Paraguayans have died in battle since April, Bolivia today added the assertion that the slaughter of Major Escribana's latest offensive had sent enemy soldiers fleeing in confusion to the mountains, where they were dying of thirst and fatigue.

Death Stalks as Trains Collide

PEEKSVILLE, N.Y., Aug. 31 (AP).—A fast New York Central passenger train crashed into the rear-end of a special holiday excursion train near here late tonight, resulting in the death of one trainman and the injury of a half-dozen or more persons.

J. J. Tracy, a brakeman on a Montreal express which struck the special, was killed after the wreck by the second section of the express as he stood on the tracks during the ensuing confusion.

Offers to Swap Unique Pin for New Automobile

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 31 (AP).—The Lancaster County Humane Society's offer to swap a pin for a new automobile has brought several inquiries from interested parties.

Here's the want ad the society ran in the Lincoln newspapers: "Swaps—Complete Lord's prayer engraved on a pin head. Formerly valued at $10,000. Exchange for new car."

A member of the society's staff said he had traded $4,000 worth of real estate for the pin, kept it in safe for years and carried $5,000 insurance on it. Originally it was engraved by a Spokane, Wash., resident, he said.

But now the society needs a new automobile for its work, and the staff member came forward with his offer.

The engraving may be seen through a microscope.

Pending funeral arrangements the remains repose at the Jenkins undertaking parlors.

Weather Delays Altitude Flight

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP).—Unfavorable weather reports, and necessity for a final "tuning up" of his plane, today, delayed the start of Wiley Post's projected ten-mile altitude ascent into the stratosphere.

The famous around-the-world flyer hopes to better the airplane altitude record of 47,560 feet.

Prospectors Blast Way to Safety as Bear Grows Angry

Lillooet Miners Hurl Dynamite at Irrate Mother and Escape From Tree as Charge Explodes Somersaulting the Animal

LILLOOET, Aug. 31 (CP).—Somewhere in the bush country surrounding this mining community a mother bear is nursing a sore muzzle and a determination to give all prospectors a wide berth, particularly ones with dynamite.

Charlie Scott and his son, Tommy, prospectors, were walking along a ridge, when they met the mother bear and two cubs. They made for the two nearest trees, while the cubs scrambled up a third.

SHAKES BEAR FROM TREE
Snarling annoyance the old bear started to climb the tree Tommy was perched in but he kept up a steady shaking which tumbled the animal down a half dozen times.

Meantime, Charlie, had no gun but he did have some dynamite, breaking off a two-inch piece he made a charge and threw it. The fuse went out.

W. W. DUNCAN PASSES AWAY

Saanich municipality lost one of its most highly respected residents yesterday by the sudden death of William Wallace Duncan, chairman of the Municipal School Board and former British Columbia markets commissioner.

Mr. Duncan was entering a Port Street barber shop, shortly before noon yesterday morning, when he collapsed. Dr. T. W. Barrett, who was in the shop at the time, offered medical assistance, but Mr. Duncan never regained consciousness and died within a few minutes.

While Mr. Duncan's death came suddenly it was not altogether unexpected, as he had been ill for a few weeks, more recently suffering a severe heart attack, which caused anxiety to his family.

WILL SUBMIT RELIEF PLAN

Conference at Ottawa on Drought Problems Facing Prairies

OTTAWA, Aug. 31 (CP).—The pressing problem of drought relief in the Prairie provinces, particularly in Saskatchewan, will be taken up at a conference, tomorrow, between Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, and the ministers of agriculture for Saskatchewan and Manitoba. It was learned today that these ministers, Hon. G. A. Tuzart, Saskatchewan, and Hon. Donald McKenzie, Manitoba, will arrive in Ottawa, tomorrow morning, and lay before the Federal minister a scheme for relief and rehabilitation of those in the stricken areas.

Drought relief and methods that may be adopted not only to care for the immediate needs of those affected, but to combat possible future setbacks of a similar nature, have been occupying the Dominion Government continually, and today, for the third time this week, Cabinet Council devoted the major portion of its session to that problem.

HIGH PRICE FOR NELSON LETTERS

Noted Codicil Names Lady Hamilton to Take Care of Adopted Daughter

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Among documents and letters of Lord Nelson, which realized just under $4,000 at Sotheby's, was the signed codicil to the admiral's will, leaving $20,000 to his adopted daughter, Horatia Nelson Thompson. It appointed Emma, Lady Hamilton, as her guardian.

This interesting document, which belonged to the Duke of Bronte, great-great-nephew of Lord Nelson, brought $1,200. In the codicil, Lord Nelson stated:

"This request of guardianship I earnestly make of Lady Hamilton, knowing that she will educate my adopted child in the paths of religion and virtue and give her those accomplishments which so much adorn herself; and I hope make her a fit wife for my dear nephew Horatio Nelson, who I wish to marry her if he proves worthy in Lady Hamilton's estimation, of such a treasure as I am sure she will be."

The duplicate of another codicil, revoking the absolute bequest of Merton to Lady Hamilton, and leaving it in trust for her, sold for $600.

GENEVA REPORT

GENEVA, Aug. 31 (AP).—League of Nations officials here tonight credited Great Britain's support of Russian membership in the league, and over political tension in the East.

While league sources believed the British economic delegation sent to Manchukuo in an effort to find new markets for British products, might conceivably bring about an economic rapprochement with Japan, they saw no indication that the two island nations desire to renew their alliance.

Lower Vancouver Island's lakes and glens are so like those of the Old Country, Mrs. M. Rose Methill, Fife, Scotland, said, yesterday, at the Douglas Hotel, that she would prefer remaining in Victoria to returning to Scotland.

Although she has been travelling in Canada and the United States since May, Mrs. Rose declared she has not seen greater beauty than that of Vancouver Island.

HAS JURISDICTION

Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, has jurisdiction over operations of the act.

Chinese Aviator Killed

Manoeuvring over a congested section of New York city, two Chinese aviators came to grief when their planes collided in mid-air. Wong Ou-Wah was killed when his ship crashed on to the roof of a tenement house.

Employees should not be penalized, and need have no fear of being unfairly treated.

"Our experience in the past amply justifies continuance of the policy of cent-a-mile excursions," Mr. Beatty said.

WATCHING NEW TRAINS
The Canadian Pacific was carefully watching development of stream-line air-conditioned trains in the United States, but did not contemplate their introduction until investigations in the United States had given accurate data upon which to proceed.

"Business throughout Canada is generally better than a year ago," he said, "and with a fair crop movement, railways should finish the year with better net earnings. It is not to be expected that the percentage of improvement will be continued, as we are reaching the period when the first upturn in business took place in 1933."

"The crop situation, I think, will improve, and while no accurate estimate can be made until the out-turns are known, it is, in my judgment, more than likely that estimates recently made will be slightly increased."

TOURIST TRAFFIC
There has been a distinct improvement in tourist traffic in British Columbia this year and I see no reason why it should not recur. All that is necessary is increased confidence among the citizens of Canada and the United States and in spite of uncertainties which exist in many quarters, I am disposed to think that this confidence will strengthen as months pass."

Traveling in the president's party are D. C. Coleman, Winnipeg, vice-president in charge of Western Lines; W. N. McLaughlin, director, Toronto; R. S. McLaughlin, director, Oshawa, Ont.; R. H. McMaster, director; C. H. Carlisle, Toronto business man; H. J. Main, general superintendent, Winnipeg, and C. A. Cotterell, general superintendent, Vancouver, who is accompanying the party through British Columbia.

He entered the Admiralty in 1904, two years later being transferred to the Home Office, and, among the numerous important offices that he has held are those of joint secretary to the Royal Commission Mines and Royal Commission Metalliferous Mines and Quarries; assistant private secretary to Rt. Little Bedtime Stories
Boomer Talks With Peter Rabbit
—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Peter Rabbit sat at the edge of the Old Briar Patch nursing a sore foot. Peter was happy and he was unhappy. It was hard work to be happy with a sore foot, and Peter's foot was very sore indeed. Yet right down deep in his heart Peter was glad of that sore foot. You see, because of it, Peter could not show Bower the Hound where Reddy Fox was hiding. Peter had felt that he had to do that very thing because all the little meadow and forest people had said that he must, that it was his duty, so that Bower the Hound would tell Farmer Brown's Boy where Reddy was, and then Farmer Brown's Boy would stop hunting with his dreadful gun on the Green Meadows and in the Green Forest.

Peter Rabbit had no love for Reddy Fox. Of course not! But still, Peter couldn't bear the thought of being the one to give Reddy up to such a dreadful end as would be his if Farmer Brown's Boy caught him. Peter had started out to lead Bower the Hound up to the old house where Reddy was, but on the way he had hurt his foot on an ugly webbed, and he had had hard work to reach the dear Old Briar Patch before Bower should catch him. Of course, then it was quite impossible for him to show Bower where Reddy was, and Peter felt that no one could blame him.

He was thinking of all this as he sat on the edge of the Old Briar Patch and looked up at the twinkling little stars, for it was night. He was wondering who all his little friends would say when they learned that he had failed in his duty, and however they would get rid of Farmer Brown's Boy now.

"Boomer!" Peter jumped so that he forgot all about his sore foot and stepped on it.

"Ouch!" cried Peter. Then he shook one little fist good-naturedly up at the sky. "What are you trying to do, frighten a fellow to death?" he demanded. You see, as soon as he got demoted his wife together he had known that the noise which had startled him so was made by Boomer the Nighthawk, coasting down out of the sky. Boomer laughed. Then he sailed down close over Peter.

"Why aren't you over in the Sweet Clover Patch this fine night, Peter Rabbit?" asked Boomer.

"I've got a sore foot and I'm afraid that Granny Fox might happen along and catch me there," replied Peter.

"Don't worry about that. Granny Fox is a long way from here and Reddy is with her," said Boomer, cutting funny antics in the air. Peter pricked up his long ears. "How do you know that?" he demanded.

"I saw them a little while ago sneaking along in the shadows up in the Old Pasture on the edge of the mountain," replied Boomer. "What!" shouted Peter.

"It's a fact. I was as close as I am to you," said Boomer, swishing by Peter's head so close that Peter ducked.

Then Peter did a funny thing. He tried to dance on three legs. "Hurrah!" shouted Peter. "That must mean that they have left the Green Meadows and the Green Forest for good!"

"OH, YOU ARE GETTING FAT!"

Woman's Action After Friend's Remarks

NOW SHE'S 49 LBS.
LIGHTER

If you are one who hears remarks from friends about "getting fat," you will naturally be interested to hear this woman's story. Fortunately, it had a happy ending. Here is her letter:—

"I had put on weight gradually—not noticing it myself—until my friends kept saying to me, 'Oh, you are getting fat.' I had myself weighed, and nearly had a fit. I was 170 lbs., and I am only 5 ft. 3 1/2 in. in height. Then I saw an advertisement for Kruschen, and I thought I would try it. I did so, and to-day I weigh 120 lbs., and feel better. I continue to take Kruschen, as I find it is still reducing me, and I wish to lose a little more weight. I am recommending Kruschen to all my friends." (Mrs.) T. W.

Kruschen is an ideally balanced blend of six separate mineral salts. The formula represents the ingredients of the mineral waters of Carlsbad, Ems, Kissingen, and other well-known European spas, which have been resorted to for generations by the over-stuffed. Only in Kruschen can you get this precise combination of salts. The exact correctness of the formula of every batch of Kruschen is checked by a staff of qualified chemists, before it is passed for bottling.

Kruschen combats the cause of fat by assisting the internal organs to throw off each day those waste products and poisons which, if allowed to accumulate, will be converted by the body's chemistry into fatty tissue. Thus, Kruschen acts upon surplus fat only; if you have no excess fat to lose, you cannot lose weight with Kruschen.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle.

Mrs. Peater—This flat is so small I feel perfectly miserable at the thought of having company.

FINANCIAL AID TO BE LIMITED

Government Will Encourage Industry but Not Act as Banker

While the British Columbia Government will aid and encourage industry by every reasonable means in its power, it cannot undertake the financing or refinancing of corporations in the role of banker, it was made clear yesterday by an official spokesman for the ministry.

Acting under the Department of Industries Act the Province has assisted two enterprises this year through the guarantee of relatively small amounts advanced by private banks, against the security of their products; but has no funds with which to undertake the more onerous task of financing corporations, some of which would require sums running into half a million dollars.

LIKE TREATMENT

Should the Government act in one instance to place a considerable sum at the disposal of an industry, however worthy, it would be met with similar requests by other sections of the same industry, and from other industries to extend like assistance. As the treasury sees it, it is the function of the banks to supply capital sums of this nature, where the security warrants such action, it was explained.

The explanation came in response to requests from several sections of the Province seeking loans under the Department of Industries Act, and which, in the aggregate, would amount into very large sums. Without usurping the functions of the banks, the Government will seek in every way to encourage private initiative in the development of the resources of the country, it was made plain.

E. W. Beatty Will Attend Memorial Service in City

A MEMORIAL service for the late Grant Hall, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, will be held in Christ Church Cathedral at 10 a.m. on Monday, September 3. This will be in order to permit the former and present officers and employees of the company now resident in Victoria, as well as the late Mr. Hall's personal friends, to pay their respects to his memory.

As E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway; D. C. Coleman, vice-president for the West and the Pacific; and the directors of the company, traveling with Mr. Beatty's party on their present tour, were unable to attend yesterday's funeral at Montreal, they will be present at the memorial service at Christ Church Cathedral.

FINANCIAL SHOWING

Mr. Hungerford briefly reviewed the financial status of the railway by saying:

"We are busy trying to make a better financial showing. The net profit of the railway for the first seven months of this year was $7,000,000 better than for the period a year ago. We are trying to make it better."

Further explaining their present position, which he said was not significant of impending changes, curtailment or expansion in service, Mr. Fullerton said:

"This is the first time West for me since I became chairman, and I am anxious to understand the problems which face the Canadian National here."

Mr. Labelle explained that this was his first trip to the West, and said he was pleased with the climate and declared himself and his colleagues as particularly interested in the lumbering and tourist industries on the coast.

EXCURSIONS

Officials when asked regarding the success of "cent-a-mile" excursions from the Prairies to the Coast, replied that they had proved successful, and would be continued next summer, provided the volume of travel is sufficient.

Jackie Cooper and Wallace Beery in "Treasure Island" Have Fine Roles

Tiny Cora Sue Collins, aged six, has taken on a huge responsibility as one of Hollywood's youngest leading ladies.

For she was cast as the feminine romantic lead in "Treasure Island," Robert Louis Stevenson's classic of pirate adventure, now playing at the Capitol Theatre, with all mature characters except Jackie Cooper. Her child talents were matched with those of Wallace Beery, Lionel Barrymore, Otto Kruger and dozens of other noted players.

Cora Sue's girlish wiles were used on Jackie during scenes at the Admiral Benbow Inn, where he becomes involved in breath-taking adventures with robbers and blood-thirsty buccaners. After they had been together on the sound stage for a few minutes little Miss Collins confided:

"I'm glad Jackie and I are in love for the picture—'cause I like the shiny buckles on his shoes and he gives me chewing gum!"

AUSTRIA HEARS MANY RUMORS

Talk of Restoration of Hapsburg Monarchy Heard Frequently in Vienna

VIENNA, Aug. 31 (AP).—Every time there is a ripple on the political water of Austria, the story of a possible restoration of the Hapsburg monarchy, with young Archduke Otto ascending the throne of his fathers, is revived.

It popped up when Chancellor Dollfuss was assassinated, and murmurs of it are heard now. But observers conversant with the legal and political phases of a possible restoration believe it will be a long time before another Hapsburg waves a sceptre in Austria.

TREATIES INVOLVED

It is pointed out that treaties drawn up after the war are involved, and that other nations beside Austria and Hungary have more than a word to say in the matter. Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania are unalterably opposed to a Hapsburg monarchy anywhere in the vicinity. These nations of the Little Entente fear that an ambitious king might attempt to start sniping at their borders in an effort to create a state resembling the old Austro-Hungary kingdom.

Mission Workers To Give Address

Rev. C. P. and Mrs. Young will be the guest speakers on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, when the Victoria Presbyterian W.M.S. holds its semi-annual meeting. They have returned from Mindia, India, where they are missionaries under appointment of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Mr. Young is a graduate of Robertson College, Edmonton, and his home was at Springbank, near Calgary. He and his wife were appointed to the Bhil Field, 1921, and during their present furlough they will tour the provinces.

The afternoon session of the semi-annual meeting will open at 3 o'clock, when reports of the various secretaries will be heard. The guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mrs. Thomas Wilson, of Vancouver, who was a delegate to the seventh annual council executive W.M.S. meeting in Montreal.

The leadership of Howard English, president, the executive arranged a series of programmes that include features entirely new and different from anything presented by a Y.P.S. group before. The season will open on Monday evening, September 10.

W. W. DUNCAN PASSES AWAY

Mr. Duncan was in England at the outbreak of the Great War, but he returned immediately to Canada to join up with the 143rd (Bantams) Battalion in Victoria. On going overseas he transferred to the Railway Construction Corps and served with that unit until the Armistice. He retired with the rank of captain.

RETURNS TO VICTORIA

In 1922 Mr. Duncan returned to Victoria and took up his residence in Saanich. He became prominent in affairs in the municipality within a short time.

Since his residence in Saanich he had been engaged in farming and was greatly interested in marketing problems. He was one of those instrumental in establishing the Keating Co-operative Association, which subsequently became the Vancouver Island Fruit Growers' Association. He was president of that body at the time of his death.

BECOMES COMMISSIONER

Mr. Duncan was also keenly interested in exporting produce and was manager of the Hobbins Products Company. He was also prominent in setting up the Victoria Wineries.

In June, 1929, Mr. Duncan was made director of marketing for British Columbia, under the Toinie Administration. This post he held until the Spring of 1932, when he retired to enter the import and export business in Victoria.

BOARD CHAIRMAN

A keen Conservative he had always taken a strong interest in affairs of Saanich. Mr. Duncan was elected to the Municipal School Board in 1932, and last January was appointed chairman of that organization.

He was a prominent Freemason, a charter member and first T.P.G.M. of the Scottish Rite, Lodge of Perfection, in Victoria, and two years ago he was elevated to the thirty-third degree.

FAY WRAY HAS ROLE IN MIDNIGHT MATINEE

Playing a simperton is no simple job.

Fay Wray, beautiful screen actress, can attest to the truth of this seeming paradox, for her portrayal of the exquisite but stupid Angela, favorite model of Benvenuto Cellini in "The Affairs of Cellini," 20th Century's gay comedy, showing Sunday-midnight, at the Capitol Theatre, was her most difficult characterization to date. Fay had to dye her hair titian for this role, and she is reported to look lovelier than ever in the charming Renaissance costumes.

BALANCED BUDGETS

Three at least of the Overseas Dominions have followed Britain's lead in balancing their budgets. They are South Africa with a handsome surplus, Australia also with a surplus, and New Zealand, the smallest of the three, with a surplus of $40,000,000. These Dominions have framed their financial legislation on the plan whereby Britain checked too heavy outlays. They cut down on expenditures, they introduced economies in all governmental proceedings; they benefited from the rise in world prices and the prosperity of the British market. They have been rewarded by having set their financial houses in order. Obviously they chose the logical way to meet the difficulties of depression and they are emerging from the situation in which they found themselves with assured foundations on which to build a new era of prosperity. It is possible that if Canada had not suffered from the geographical merism of propinquity to the United States this country might have shared with other Overseas Dominions the satisfaction of balanced budgets, both Federal and provincial. Those sort of budgets, however, can never be launched on a sea of I.O.U.'s.

WILL THEY TAKE THE OATH?

This is a time of testing for many church people in Germany. The preachers of the Gospel are being called upon to choose between their stipends and the freedom of the Church in things spiritual. This situation arises out of the Nazi programme for the reorganization of German life, including the Church, in the interests of the totalitarian State. Spiritual forces are to be lined up behind the Government. The Church is planned to be a department of the State and its ministers to be ecclesiastical soldiers. Towards this objective Nazi churchmen under Reichsbishop Ludwig Müller have been working within the Church for the past year or more. They have, however, met with limited success in making the evangelical independents goose-step to the Nazi discipline.

Three weeks ago decisive action was taken to crush opposition within the Church. Chancellor Hitler had become restive under Dr. Müller's delay in co-ordinating the Church with the State. Immediately after his assumption of supreme power following President Hindenburg's death, a hastily called meeting of the National Church Synod was held which decreed that the Church's 18,000 pastors should at once and publicly take the oath of allegiance to Chancellor Hitler. "I swear to God, all-knowing and all-holy," the oath runs, "that in my present office as preacher of the Gospel and any other spiritual office to which I may be called, I will be faithful and obedient to the Leader of the German people and State."

This oath is held to commit the Church not only to loyalty to Hitler in the political sphere but to his dominance in spiritual matters. That this will be the result is shown in the further action of the Synod. After putting absolute power in the hands of the Reichsbishop, it disfranchised itself. The Church is thus left in the hands of a rubber-stamp body ruled by a dictator. The oath, it has been pointed out, has introduced a paradoxical situation in that it calls for spiritual obedience to one who was born an Austrian Roman Catholic.

Will pastors and Church officers take this oath? Will German Protestantism surrender its freedom? That there will be opposition is shown by a minority vote within the Synod. On the following Sunday one thousand ministers made bold protests from their pulpits. The Independent Synod formed last May, which claimed to be the real evangelical body and which disowned the primacy of Dr. Müller, is functioning in the present crisis. During the past year 800 pastors were suspended from their pulpits. More stringent action may now be expected from the Reichsbishop dictator. Already five superintendents have been dismissed and Baron von Soden, the distinguished theological historian, has been discharged from Warburg University. Under the new law the collection of Church taxes may be inhibited by the authorities. Church incomes will be cut off and ministers will lose their stipends and parsonages.

The situation challenges the attention of all who believe in religious liberty. Representations have been made to Dr. Müller by leaders of American churches, and English churchmen have expressed their solidarity for the cause of religion in Germany. Dr. Müller will not, however, recede from the Nazi position. A docile Church is part of the Nazi scheme. There is a certainty, however, that a considerable minority is sure to stand against the supremacy of Hitler over conscience. Scotland had its Covenanters and its men of the Free Church of 1840 who suffered rather than be under State domination. In England 2,000 ministers defied the Act of Uniformity. Germany will produce a like quota who are prepared to suffer for the freedom of faith.

AMERICAN LIBERTY LEAGUE

The choice of Mr. Upton Sinclair as prospective Democratic candidate for the Governorship of California is said to indicate that State as a happy hunting ground for the American Liberty League. In what way it is so needs explanation, because Mr. Sinclair is nothing if not a radical bent. Possibly the explanation is that California is suspected of a changed public opinion since President Roosevelt was elected.

As a matter of fact, the American Liberty League has been organized by representatives of both Republican and Democratic parties. Its object is to study the New Deal and to combat radicalism. The Liberty League is not anti-Roosevelt. It is determined, however, to do what may be possible for the preservation of individual rights and property, and, of course, to do what is in its determination something antagonistic to the principles of the New Deal. The League is extending its operations throughout the United States. It is engaged in one of the greatest of modern day pastimes, that of collecting data. It has its research staff, as is the case with practically every new organization that springs into existence out of the limbo of a restless mentality. Its avowed object is "to make such reports as will represent intelligent understanding of legislation and exert influence on Congress." In its purposes it is certain to fall foul of many activities of the N.R.A. That the League should have been formed at all is an indication that the New Deal is encountering heavy weather, and there are many evidences that, to the extent to which it may, the American spirit of state is about to shorten sail. What a very large section of the American people want is less interference with industry.

GUINNESS'S BREWERY

One of Dublin's largest individual industries, that of Arthur Guinness, Son & Co., is to open a branch brewery near London. This step may be preliminary to the removal of the brewery, root and branch, from Ireland to England, a project that has been discussed ever since Mr. de Valera assumed power in the Free State. The firm's trade lies mostly outside the Free State. It does not wish to be separated from the British fiscal system, and it is fairly certain that if the Free State seceded from the Empire Guinness's business would be found established in England altogether. It is a preliminary to the possibility of such secession that a determination has been reached to transfer some 25 per cent of Guinness's business to the other side of the Irish Sea.

Six kilns are being erected in London. There are twenty-five in the brewery at St. James's Gate, Dublin. This move must necessarily have some effect on employment in the Free State, despite the fact that Guinness's business is extending so rapidly. The firm has paid as much as $16,000,000 in Government duty in a single year. Its greatest sales in any one year were well over 115,000,000 gallons of porter and stout. Some 14,000 persons depend for their livelihood, either directly or indirectly, on the Dublin brewery, and this number does not include all members of their families. The firm is distinctly Irish. Lord Iveagh, like his father before him, is Chancellor of Dublin University. For the past six generations the family has been connected with the Irish capital. There was a legend which maintained for a long time that Guinness's stout could not be brewed anywhere but on the banks of the Liffey, from which the water for the purpose was supposed to be derived. That legend has been exploded. The water is taken from the Grand Canal, and Guinness's stout of water of equal merit can be found in England.

There is at least one man who is not too old for physical exercise of a very strenuous character when over fifty years of age. This is Arthur Newton, of England, who, in his fifty-second year, has just run from Bath, Somerset, to Hyde Park, London, and, not even content with that feat, which he accomplished in fourteen hours and six minutes, he ran another half-mile in Hyde Park. Then he took a seat in the park and pulled out his pipe for a smoke. He had no desire for a rub-down or a drink. In the past twelve and a half years Newton has run 90,000 miles, and is apparently still "going strong." Both his heart and muscles must be in superb condition, and the marvel of it all is that he did not take up running seriously until he was forty years old.

A PROUD BRITISH RECORD

It is worth while recalling what has been done in this country. The National budget has been balanced, "cuts" in the various departments have been reduced and taxes reduced—this at a time when over great nations have been adding to its indebtedness, and in most cases, increasing the burdens of its citizens. Trade and employment have steadily improved; both imports and exports are up; staple industries are recovering; over half a million more people are at work. Great social measures have been passed, designed to make easier the lot of the underdog and enhance the conditions of working people. Whereas America has experienced wholesale strikes, accompanied usually with bloodshed, none of the great industries in Britain have lost a day's work on this account. The last year has not been exceeded by any period since the war for peaceful progress among the classes. In politics, as in industry, the record is one of steady advance. The National Government retains widespread confidence—Everyman (London).

Men, in whatever anxiety they may be, if they are men, sometimes indulge in relaxation.—Cicero.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Hope this a flattering tale.
Delusive, vain and hollow.
At best hope prevails.
Least disappointment follow.

Sometimes after reading the paper in the morning we think of the fairy tales and the nursery rhymes of ever so long ago. At other times after the same process we think of the alchemists who dreamt they could transmute base metals into gold. The dream of the alchemists has not come true. No modern chemist has attempted to turn copper into tin, or zinc, or lead into the coveted yellow metal. If it could not be done, it can be multiplied in value by a very simple process. On the advice of his Brain Trust the President of the United States had a law passed compelling all the people in the country to turn the gold they possessed into the Treasury.

The treasure was not confiscated to the Treasury. The standard price was paid for the gold, and the owners lost nothing in the transaction. But after all the gold had been placed in storage, like the corn collected by Joseph in Egypt, a decree was passed increasing the price of gold by 40 per cent, and the Treasury was richer to that extent. That is a modern fairy tale. Nobody was robbed, but the national Treasury was enriched. It is said that in gambling, if one person wins another person must lose. In the modern fairy tale the Government was not gambling. It was betting upon a sure thing, for it held all the cards.

We are told that the product of this magical transaction is to be applied to the reduction of the national debt and that as a consequence debt reduction some billions of dollars will be added to the currency in circulation. We are further told that this is not the dangerous thing called inflation. There are strict economists who will say that also is a modern fairy tale.

A few months ago the professional advisers of the President suggested that it would be a fine stimulant to business and a sure means of increasing the prices of commodities if the value of the dollar were reduced by 40 per cent. That was done, and the prices of commodities have gone up so high that consumers are complaining that they have not enough devalued dollars to buy them. The natural recession or reaction was reported in the dispatches to the newspapers and printed this morning. Labor is being paid in devalued dollars and is expected to be paid at revalued or inflated prices. There are strikes in progress and rumors of more strikes in prospect.

The paper this morning reported a strike of the housewives of Chicago which reminded us of the nursery rhyme about the little pig which went to market. About a year ago the profound economists of the United States discovered that there were too many pigs in the country for the good of the farmers. So decrees were issued that millions of pigs must be destroyed, and today there are so few little or big pigs going to market that the price of pork has gone up so high that the housewives of Chicago have declared they cannot afford to indulge in pork chops and have organized a pork consumers' strike. The Government appears to have been indulging in an orgy of gambling, and somebody has lost. The loser may be the consumer, although events may demonstrate that everybody in the country has lost something.

It must not be assumed that the Brain Trust, or the alchemists, dreamers, do not anticipate the possibilities of the new deal in economics. They expected that prices would rise, and had made provision for keeping them from rising too high. When they devalued the dollar and revalued the gold they had impounded, when they restricted the hours of labor and fixed minimum rates of pay for the services of labor, they made official provision for the inspection of prices at which all products should be sold to consumers. But they did not take into consideration the magnitude of the task they had undertaken nor make provision for the pervasiveness of human nature. Their plans were well laid (on paper), but they are not developing well in practice. The President seems to realize the possibility of failure of the new plan, for one day he announced a complete reorganization of N.R.A. and another day he declares the deal must be carried to a successful conclusion. The daring experiment is more interesting than any fairy tale.

Dear R.B.D.—As a constant reader of your very interesting column in The Colonist, I was particularly interested in your column yesterday morning on the subject of motor accidents both here and abroad. I am sure that you have not been listening to the unfavorable weather, many did not have this opportunity. The Admiral and bandmaster are to be congratulated on the excellence of the band.

Railway Extension—The C.P.R. railway line is now open to Roscoe's Bridge. Robert Ward & Company are now in the process of being transferred for that point after September 3. This fact shows rapid and steady progress in railway work.

Oxme Cautions—A considerable number of oxen and a few deer were brought into town yesterday. Soon after, however, reports were received that the Lake district at very poor. R. L. L. and J. Campbell, Jr., came in from North Saanich with seven deer of oxen.

Central Coal Yard—Messrs. Walsh, Rivett & Company have retired from the Central Coal Yard, and in future the business will be carried on by Richard Broderick.

been a puzzle to me, as I get thorough enjoyment in driving at the general rate of twenty miles, and never get thirty.

In my opinion, it is absurd for the manufacturer and the salesman when selling a car always to lay great stress on the fact that one can get only twenty or thirty miles an hour when driving, and I have often thought that the only way to stop all excessive driving—and bear in mind this is not always confined to speed maniacs—is to compel by legislation the manufacturers to turn out cars that cannot be driven over forty miles an hour, which speed is enough for anyone to drive.

This of course may not be possible, although the way in which we are all being legislated today, it seems to me it can be done, and the interest of safety, should be done.

As long as cars are built to career along their streets and roads at excessive speeds, they are in the hands of reckless individuals, there will always be excessive loss of life, and some drastic methods will sooner or later have to be instituted to curb these careless drivers.

Your column frequently refers to this matter of speed driving, and I sincerely hope has some beneficial effect on the minds of the readers.

Leaders of Labor In Canada Urging Fewer Work Hours

Heads of Workers' Groups, in Labor Day Messages, Stress Need for Reconstruction of Economic System—Refer Generally to Revelations of Stevens' Commission Enquiry

OTTAWA, Aug. 31 (CP).—Directing attention to the continued unemployment of thousands of would-be workers, Canadian labor leaders in their Labor Day messages emphasize their demand for reconstruction of the country's economic system. Revelations of the Stevens' Committee investigation are brought out as indicating the necessity for strong corrective measures for the protection of the worker and consumer. Need for further organization of workers' associations and better direction of their activities is stressed. Shortening of hours of labor to spread available work and increase of wages to give purchasing power are again advocated as essential to the improvement of conditions.

UNITED EFFORTS
The message of Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada follows: "Another year of trial and sacrifice has failed to weaken the spirit of our movement. This Labor Day, in the past, will find the organized workers, with unconquerable that Labor's protests against profiteering and exploitation were only economic freedom and social justice. "The exposure of the Parliamentary probe respecting price spreads, etc., has shocked the public conscience and served to make plain that Labor's protests against profiteering and exploitation were only too well founded. It has also emphasized to all workers that trade union organization is their best protection against such abuses.

"The stubborn opposition of governments and employers to reduce hours of labor and the continuance of policies of retrenchment, and economy, almost solely at the expense of the pay envelope, is retarding progress toward recovery, as is demonstrated by the deplorable fact that over one million of our population are still dependent upon public funds for the bare necessities of life. With such conditions existing it is asinine to ignore that unemployment still remains the greatest problem with which this country has to deal.

"The rebuilding of our economic life on a sounder basis is no light task but is one that brooks no delay. The extent to which this will restore a measure of happiness and contentment in the lives of the victims of unemployment will depend largely upon the influence that labor can exercise in the shaping of the country's future policies.

"Every hand there are clear indications that wage earners realize this responsibility and that the sure road to success is by organization. "Labor Day, 1934, finds organized labor once more on the forward march, determined to abolish the prevailing system of destruction and waste, and to use every constitutional means at command to secure the right to participate in the enjoyment of those things which, by their labor and with the aid of modern machinery, are today produced in such abundance.

PATIENCE OF WORKERS
A. R. Mosher, president of the All-Canadian Congress of Labor says: "During the past five years of depression, privation and mass misery, the workers of Canada have been amazingly patient and hopeful. Their attitude has gone far to establish the truth of the poet's observation that 'hope springs eternal in the human breast,' and their patience has almost, if not quite, reached the point where it ceases to be a virtue.

"They have hoped that the controllers of industry and finance, the chief beneficiaries of the present economic system, would find some way of stimulating business and making it possible for the great army of the unemployed to obtain a livelihood. They have hoped that, implementing their election programme, those entrusted with the government of the country could and would do something to lead the people out of the wilderness of depression.

"These hopes have not been realized. Unemployment is still rapping the morale of hundreds of thousands of would-be workers, and the fear of economic insecurity haunts the homes of those who are still fortunate enough to have a job. The shocking revelations of the Stevens Committee have thrown a strong light into the dark places of competitive business, indicating that both workers and consumers are ground between the millstones of profit and greed.

go hand in hand. Mr. Draper continued: "The lesson to be learned is that governmental regulation of industrial conditions, brought about through a public opinion which the workers themselves help to shape, is sound in its proper sphere, but it is not a substitute in any sense for the properly-directed activities of workers' organizations.

"Herein lies the duty of all workers in Canada, to organize the unorganized. The proper maintenance of living standards, a more truly social economic organization, depends largely upon further organization of the workers and that gospel must be preached by labor in season and out of season. No truth has been more aptly demonstrated in recent years. Unity, liberty and freedom of speech are fundamental factors to cultural development, social progress and the pursuit of happiness. Labor has always stood for liberty and unity, consequently irrevocably hostile to all dictatorships, whether they be of the proletariat, the oligarchy, the Nazi or the Fascist types.

ERRORS OF DICTATORS
"Labor accepts the doctrine that no matter how great the errors of democracy, the errors of the dictators, political, military and administrative, have involved the world in far more grave and dire consequences, culminating in making of most of the European nations a vast armed camp now engaged in a race in the manufacture of the most deadly and destructive air and land implements of war, aimed at the annihilation of humanity.

"Once again Great Britain, with her virile free institutions, notably her great labor movement, shows

Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir Has Part Praise for Municipal Brief

Peace once more floated over the proceedings of the Weir School Survey yesterday, following some ministerial explanations. Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir made the amende honorable, for what had appeared as a constant of the brief of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, in the following statement:

"The brief offered by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities was ably presented. It contained much solid food for thought. There was considerable agreement among those present on three points at least: The need for investigating the tax on land; the possible modification of the income tax; and the possible need for a larger administrative unit.

"The position taken by the Union, however, that education was not and should not, be considered a preferred community service, or should not be

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

NO READY-MADE TRICKS

The longer one plays bridge, the more fully he realizes the truth of the fact that there are no certain tricks at bridge—not even the ace of trumps, which might be lost by reason of a revoke. It is of course, true that aces are reasonably safe tricks, and a player holding three aces cannot be charged with undue optimism if he doubles a contract of six, especially when that contract has apparently been reached unwillingly. However, East, playing the hand below, did have the satisfaction of fulfilling his small slam contract because he found a fortunate void in one suit in the dummy and was himself void of another.

DOORS CLOSED ON BELGIUM'S TRADE

Country Not Likely to Infringe Currency in Spite of Hard Times, Visitor Declares

With the trade doors of the world closed against it, Belgium, which is virtually an exporting country, is making a desperate effort to keep afloat, according to W. Hallam Tuck, Waterloo, Belgium, who is visiting at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Tuck is associated with banking interests and the manufacture of chemicals.

As explained by Mr. Tuck, the little country of Belgium is a victim of the new era, in which the countries of the world are endeavoring to follow a policy of nationalism and self-containment. Against these odds, Belgium is having difficulty to survive, but the Government, which the visitor explains is handling affairs with a strong hand, is determined not to allow prospects for the country are none too bright, its people are confident better times will soon come about.

Mr. Tuck said, "Accompanied by his wife and extended tour through Canada. He plans to leave here shortly for California, from where he will board a steamer to cruise through the Panama Canal, before returning to Europe."

CELEBRATING Will Press Claim for Secession

Judge C. H. Barker, of Nanaimo, Twenty-Five Years on Bench

NANAIMO, Sept. 1.—His Honor Judge Charles Howard Barker, of Nanaimo, is today receiving congratulations from folk in every walk of life, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the date that he received his appointment of judge of the County Court of Nanaimo, that takes in four jurisdictions, including all of the territory on the Island north of Shawnigan. He presided in court for the first time following the Summer vacation in September, 1909.

His appointment came when Sir Wilfrid Laurier was Prime Minister of the Dominion, and the late Ralph Smith was Minister of Labor in the Dominion Cabinet, representing Nanaimo riding.

PRACTISED IN VICTORIA—He was called to the bar in 1891, and first went to practise with Yates, Jay & Russell, in Victoria. The firm opened a branch office in Nanaimo the following year, with C. H. Barker in charge. A year later the young barrister purchased the business, and carried on until his appointment was made.

Judge Barker recalls that Judge Lampan, of Victoria, was incidentally named his successor in the early days, in the legal firm of Yates, Jay & Russell, Victoria.

Born in Sheffield, Sunbury County, New Brunswick, Judge Barker was educated in a grammar school before setting his degree in the University of New Brunswick. When he graduated, he took honors in French and science to win a cash scholarship and the Governor-General's Medal.

He was principal of a grammar school for three years and then studied law for three years at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. He then passed his final examinations in British Columbia.

He remembers meeting Frank Higgins, Victoria barrister, at Osgoode Hall, also Senator H. Barnard, of Victoria.

A NOTABLE VICTORY—Among his more spectacular victories while practising at the bar, Lawyer Barker prosecuted the case of an Extension miner in the Supreme Court, who was awarded $14,000 damages for a fractured leg against the Dunsmuir Colliery Company. The company appealed to the British Columbia Court of Appeal, and there losing out, took the case to Ottawa, where the Supreme Court of Canada upheld the trial decision and mulcted the Colliery Company in costs throughout.

Judge Barker is well known all over the Island and the province on Millstone Avenue, surrounded with attractive grounds, is the stopping point of prominent folk passing through Nanaimo from north and southern points, and is frequently used to raise funds for philanthropic purposes.

Both Judge Barker and his wife, formerly Miss Jane Dobson, member of a pioneer family, and whose father, the late Thomas Dobson, founded the Nanaimo Foundry & Iron Works in the early eighties, are often hospitable hosts to a large circle of friends in Nanaimo and on the Island and Mainland.

Dale, who ran in the 880, was tripped up after running the quarter, and his chances of victory ruined. Eighteen started in this event. Dale stated that he was tripped up from behind, and the start there was a mad scramble for the inside positions. "I was well up with the leaders when I was tripped me up from behind, and I fell, the lanky youngster stated, when asked about his reported fall in the half-mile event.

If September 1 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 6:30 to 8:30 a.m., from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. and from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

The morning hours may seem to drag if you shirk work that should be attended to by trying to excuse yourself with the thought of this date being Saturday. You may enjoy the week-end far more if you are conscious of having left nothing unfinished. Any form of over-exertion may exact a heavy payment, so display good sense by taking things easy. The capriciousness of a lady may prove rather trying, but fussing might make matters worse, so you will display good judgment if you take this dose of temporary unpleasantness with a smile and a silent tongue. Plans for the following day might not at first meet with your approval, but it might be a good idea not to express yourself too quickly, for on second consideration you may find that you like them. In your social contacts a rather indiscreet and foolish type of individual may thoughtlessly suggest something that might lead to a

Baptists Present Strong Front at Berlin Congress

THE Baptists are a courageous people. Democratic to the core, they held the World Alliance Congress in Berlin, where autocracy is most autocratic. In the very week during which Herr Hitler, Chancellor of the Third Reich, was proclaiming himself the President and demanding of the German people endorsement of his assumption of despotic powers, these believers in Christian democracy boldly affirmed their convictions. Nazism defies the Aryan race; Baptists told the world, Nazis included, that Christ taught the oneness of all humanity. Some of the highlights of this remarkable assembly will be touched upon in tomorrow's issue.

GREAT PYRAMID TO BE SUBJECT

J. S. Eason, of Vancouver, Speaker and Editor, Will Lecture Tuesday

A lecture on the enthralling subject of the Great Pyramid, the "Altar of Witness" in the land of Egypt, will be given at the Victoria and District British-Israel Association meeting in the Chamber of Commerce Hall, on Tuesday, September 4, at 8 o'clock, by J. S. Eason, of Vancouver.

Mr. Eason's masterly handling of this and allied themes has made him, though still a young man, one of the most attractive speakers on the British-Israel platform. His comprehensive interpretation of present-day events by the light of Scripture prophecy and chronology, both in his lectures and in his magazine, The Periscope, is making a deep impression upon many in the province, and it is expected that a capacity audience will, as on former occasions, avail itself of the opportunity of hearing him.

During this visit to Victoria, Mr. Eason will also address meetings in neighboring communities. He will speak on Monday at Royal Oak Hall, on Wednesday at Sidney in Scout Hall, on Thursday at Mount Talmie in St. Aidan's Hall and on Friday in Brentwood Hall.

First Canadian Pastor Arrived Here in 1884

Last Sunday Was Jubilee of Beginning of Rev. Simon Fraser's Ministry at First Presbyterian Church

With the coming, fifty years ago last Sunday, of Rev. Donald Fraser to the pulpit of First Presbyterian Church of this city, this congregation became associated with the Presbyterian Church in Canada. This was on August 24, 1884. Dr. W. G. Wilson, the present minister at Mount Forest, Ont., to take charge of the newly-attached cause. The new minister came with his family by way of the Great Lakes and Portland, Ore., arriving at Victoria August 21, 1884, and preached his first sermon on the following Sunday, August 24.

Presbyterianism, however, took its place in the life of Victoria as early as 1861, when Rev. John Hall, of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, arrived here and led members of the Scottish faith in building a house of worship on Pandora and Blanshard Streets, which was opened November 18, 1863. He was succeeded in 1867 by Rev. Thomas Somerville, of the Established Church of Scotland. Later, part of the congregation withdrew under his leadership and formed St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

JOINS CANADIAN CHURCH
First Church, this weakened, fell upon unhappy days and had no regular pastor for four years, but was supplied occasionally by Rev. Thomas Jamieson, then at Nanaimo. Following this period, Rev. Dr. Reid, a Congregationalist, had charge for six years and Rev. Dr. J. Smith, a Methodist, for two years, who was succeeded by Rev. D. Gamble, an American Presbyterian, who was in charge of the church season and well known in literary circles.

A tablet to his memory is to be found in the church, memorializing his strenuous pastorate of seven years, which terminated with his death in July, 1891. Two daughters reside here, and a son, Donald A. Fraser, who is a senior member of the First United Church season and well known in literary circles.

He will speak in the local Pentecostal Assembly Hall on Broad Street every night of the coming week.

Christ Jesus To Be Theme For the Day

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 2. The golden text is: "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begeth loveth him" (1 John 3).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (Matthew 9, 23). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The physical healing of Christian Science results now, as in Jesus' time, from the operation of divine Principle, before which sin and disease and their reality in human consciousness disappear as darkness gives place to light and sin to reformation" (p. xi).

Mrs. Deering's message is clear and practical. She gives the teaching of the Master Jesus the Christ in a way that is both forceful and illuminating. Her subject on Sunday morning will be "Fathers," and the inner teaching of the mind as the sea, with thoughts as the fishes, will be brought out through the parable as given in Matthew xli, 47, 48.

In the evening the lesson will be "At the Feet of the Master," and will be based on the old story of Mary and Martha.

On Wednesday evening will be given the fourth of the Beatitudes lessons. The Friday evening lesson is the fourth of the great mysteries.

Dizzy Dean Wins 23rd Fixture of Baseball Season

Conquers Season's Jinx When He Pitches Cardinals to 3-1 Victory Over Cubs to Put Team in Tie for Second Place—Giants Beat Dodgers—Yankees Trim Senators

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP).—Dizzy Dean conquered his season's jinx today, to win his twenty-third victory of the season, and pitched St. Louis Cardinals to a tie with Chicago Cubs for second place in the National League standing. Largely because of Dean's pitching, the Cards won the opener of the series, 3-1.

Giants Continue Winning

AMERICAN LEAGUE
NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP).—Tony Lazzeri swung his wooden axe today and chopped a half-game right off the lead Detroit Tigers hold over New York Yankees in the American League pennant race. The one swing, a home run walk-up in the second inning, decided a mound duel between Charley "Red" Ruffings and Jack Russell, sending the Yanks off to their second straight victory over Washington, 3-1.

MCLARNIN IS FEELING IN GREAT SHAPE

Jimmy Talks of Assault He Will Make on Ross' Welter Crown

By BOB CAVANAGH
Associated Press Sports Writer.
ORANBURG, N.Y., Aug. 31 (AP).—Jimmy McLarnin took a busman's holiday today and talked about the assault he will make on Barney Ross' welterweight championship dynasty next Thursday.

The twenty-six-year-old Vancouver boxer was given the day off after going through a strenuous programme on Thursday. It wasn't exactly a day of rest, because he arose at his customary hour—7 a.m.—and galloped over three miles of country roads with Trainer Charley Schoeneman. Later, McLarnin and Schoeneman set out on a ten-mile walk.

"I never felt so young in all my life," said the young veteran of ten years of ring warfare, as he relaxed in his cottage, half a mile from Gus Wilson's training camp.

CONQUERS EXTREME COLD WATERS FOR 2ND STRAIGHT WIN

Iowan Ploughs Through Chilly Lake Ontario to Register Sensational Triumph Over the Long and Grueling Course—Bill Goll Is Second—Witty Sixty-Second to Drop Out

By A. E. FULFORD
Canadian Press Staff Writer.
TORONTO, Aug. 31 (CP).—Frigid waters of Lake Ontario were conquered today as Marvin Nelson, of Port Dodge, Iowa, drove his 206 pounds with his powerful arms for fifteen miles to capture the Canadian National Exhibition Marathon. For the third time Nelson donned the crown as professional swimming champion, and proved himself the peer of them all in cold or warm water.

Only five finished the swim, held in water that registered below the 62 degrees, set in marathon rules by the exhibition as the minimum temperature for the grind. Today, however, Edward Hughes, manager, received the swimmers' agreement to abolish this rule and ninety crawl-stroke artists plunged into the icy lake.

Behind Nelson, who won the race in 1920 and 1923, came another United States star, Bill Goll, of New York, the "singing swimmer," Johnny Cairo, young Italian, of Toronto, unknown in big time swimming circles, battled cold and exhaustion to finish in third place, one of the most startling upsets of the marathon's record.

EARN PLENTY
The big Port Dodge natator has earned himself $20,000 in his three victories, $10,000 in 1920; $5,000 last year; and $5,000 for his triumph today. No other swimmer has ever captured the crown even twice and Nelson's three-time win marked him as without a peer in this field of athletes.

With a remarkable stroke, apparently without effort, he crawled around the course in seven hours and forty-six minutes, forty-six minutes slower than last year. When "Singing Bill" Goll lifted his bulk out of the lake he was $1,500 richer, while the surprising Johnny Cairo earned $700 for his third-place effort with Demick collecting $500 and Sadio, $200. With only five finishing the heart-breaking race, sixth-place money of $100 went unclaimed.

Exhibition officials, however, might stage a consolation swim for the $100. Jim Walsh, of North Bend, Ohio, and Thomas Nisby, Toronto, who battled the lake's Arctic water for nine hours, had a chance for the last purse, but they fell victims to the odds against them. Walsh splashed along for eight miles, while Nisby succeeded in [unclear] Clark, Nanaimo, B.C., third.

BOB DRISCOLL PLACES SECOND

Local Outboard Driver Well Up in Coast Championships at Astoria

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 31 (AP).—Emerging from the rack of competitors with a clear lead, despite a broken fin that forced him to battle his boat all the way down the home stretch, William Lazere, seven-year-old San Francisco youth, today won the Pacific Coast Class "A" hydroplane championship here. The San Francisco amateur brought his Skippy in well ahead of the second place winner, William Whittington, Pasadena, Cal., in On My Way, and Tom Redfield, Seattle, third, in Floating Power.
